

The Silence in the Sound

Words & music by Jan Garrett, JD Martin, & Rick Cowling

The quiet behind the noisy world
The silence before the sound
The love that fills the emptiness
In the spaces all around

No faith is required to hear it
It's far beyond belief
No limits up above us
No anchors underneath

Here in this Holy Moment
I stand on Higher Ground
I listen for the whisper
The silence in the sound

Stepping into the mystery
The Either and the Or
You can stumble upon the pathways
Of those who've come before

You can trust your own un-knowing
Quit looking for the door
Be still and let it find you
That's what Grace is for

Here in this Holy Moment
My heart can tell
In losing myself
I'm found
Here in this Holy Moment
I stand on Higher Ground
I listen for the whisper
The silence in the sound
