

Walking in the Right Direction

Words & Music by JD Martin & Harold Payne

My momma....one day she set me down
She said here's a little something that I have found
You better listen now.....son you better listen now
I know you wanna go fast and you wanna go far
But when that road gets a little bit hard
Remember who you are....remember whose you are

There'll be some twists and turns along the way
But you'll get a little stronger every day.....if you keep

Walking in the right direction
Listening to your heart's expression
Just keep walking in the right direction, I know
You'll end up where you're supposed to be You'ss end up where you're supposed to be

Well sometimes I get a little off course
And where I'm headed ain't exactly true north
And every open door.....ain't what I'm looking for
I remember all the things she said
There'll be some folks who'll try to fill your head
But don't you be misled.....you got your own dreams instead

There'll be some twists and turns along the way
But you'll get a little stronger every day.....if you keep

Repeat Chorus

Keep on walking on faith
And one day I know
You'll find the place
You're supposed to be

Repeat Chorus
